VITORIA

A stone relief sculpture, likely a commemorative plaque, set within an arched frame. The central figure is a man in traditional attire, including a turban and a long robe, holding a long staff or scepter. To his left is a large, five-pointed star. Below the star is a large, detailed scallop shell. In the bottom left corner, there is a small building with a pediment and a central arched doorway. The word "BURGUETA" is inscribed on the pediment, and the year "1858" is carved below it. The entire relief is set against a background of a textured, circular pattern.
